GRIFFO WINS OUT.

The Australian Beats Horaco Loeds in Twelve Hot Rounds.

IT WAS THE BEST PISTIC EVENT

Ever Pulled Off by the Coney Island Club-Solly Smith and Denny Spar Ten Rounds to a Draw-The Future of the luter-State Association-Dayton Has Flickered-The New Orleaus Races-Other News of Sport.

CONRY ISLAND, March 4 .- One of the best cards ever put up by the Seaside Athletic club was that prepared for its patrons to-night. Young Griffo, the Australian, was again to the fore to show his wonderful skill, and a big crowd came over from Philadelphia to see how Horace Leeds, of Atlantic City, N. J., would make out with the antipodean.

At 8:40 o'clock Harry McCue and Danny McBride entered the ring and both men looked in good condition. Slugging prevailed throughout and little or no science was displayed by either man. McBride had the call at the end of the sixth round, and when the referee awarded the fight to him the decieion was received with cheers.

Tom Denuy, of Australia, and Solly Smith, of California, were the next pair. They met at 122 pounds for a tenround go.

Round I. Smith led and fell short, but

Round 2. Smith led twice, but fell short. Denny landed his left on body and right on jaw. Smith swung and caught Denny on the back of the head. Denny went to his knees and Smith swung again but missed, and was roundly hissed. The referee cautioned him. Round 3. Smith rushed his man to the ropes and landed a stinger on Denny's ear. Denny landed with his leit on body and right on jaw. This was Denny's round.

Round 4. Smith led, but was boautifully-stopped with a left hander on the jaw. Smith swung wildir. Denny landed a strong left on Smith's nose. Denny showed the cleverer work, but lacked strength.

Round 5. Denny led twice, but failed to land. Smith rushed at him, but did no damage. Another rush and he ianded with his left on the head. Denny was very quick in avolding punishment, but his blows lacked steam.

Round 6. Nothing of any consequence occurred in this round.

Round 10. Smith swung and Denny countered. After some sparring Smith rnshed his man fiercety, but failed to land. Smith got Denny against the ropes and in a stiff raily, failed to do any damage, as Denny defended himself excellently, and when the gong sounded, the honors were even. The referee declared the bout a draw. GRIFFO AND LEEDS.

The fight of the night was then mnounced. Horace Leeds was the first to climb through the ropes, accompanied by his seconds. Young Griffo fol-lowed just at 10 o'clock. Griffo looked fat, but in good condition, while Leads, who was the taller, looked trained to who was the taller, looked trained to the hour. The bout was to be of twelve rounds duration at 133 pounds.

Round I. Leeds led, but Griflo landed on the ear with his left. Leeds again led, landed on body. Griflo countered ou ear. Leeds led with his left, but Griflo ducked cleverly. Both landed on the body and ear. Leeds gave Griflo his clow in the body. At the end of the round Griflo's mouth was bleeding. Round 2. Griflo landed twice with his left on Leeds' jaw and after rapid exchanges landed again on the mouth. The men were clinched when the gong rang.

Round 3. Leeds landed over the heart twice. Leeds fed, landing on the body, but Griffo countered on the face. Leeds kept leading for the heart. At the end of the round Leeds fanded on body and

Round 4. Leeds landed his right heavily on the body. Griffo hit him on the jaw with his left. Griflo hit his man five times in succession in the face with his left and right. Leeds smashed him on the chost.

Round 5. Leeds led. Griffo countered on head. Both men were fighting hard. Leeds led three times, but Grillo ducked. Leeds placed his left on Grif-fo's mouth and Griflo returned the compliment, Griflo landed on the jaw with his left. Leeds hit Griffo in the

When Leeds led Griffo threw his shoulder into him, and some of the persons near the ring-side shouted to flurst to watch him. Round 11. Griffo landed on Leeds' left ear. After some more sparring, Griffo smarhed Leeds again on the ear

Griffo smarhed Locks again on the ear and tapped him lightly on the face, Griffo got to the jaw with his right, but got one on the mouth from Locks, Griffo tried his shoulder and got hit in the back and on the head. Rapid fighting followed until the gong sounded.

Round 12, Locks landed his left on body. Locks led again. Griffo contored on face. Both countered on the face and then Griffo jabbed Locks in the face, Griffo was smilling while he tapped Locks lightly on the face. Griffo hit Locks on the ear. Locks made a wild swing, but Griffo dodgd once hit Leeds on the ear. Leeds made a wild swing, but Griflo dodged once more. Leeds punched Griffo in the mouth and Griffo tried his shoulder once more. The gong then ended the fight amid shouts of "Griffo" and coun-ter-shouts of "Leeds."

Referee Hurst decided in favor of Griffo. Pitzsimmons' Troubles.

Battimone, March 4 .- Bob Fitzsimmons in speaking to a reporter of his troubles anya:

"I have been robbed right and left by the men whom I have trusted, and they have succeeded in nearly ruining me. I have determined to stand it no longer. My show will disband at the close of our week here, and will start fresh with Martin solian at the head of it."
"The withdrawal of Capitain Glori," Beb says, "will not affect my match with Corbett.
"It is my meney that is fin. Glori."

"It is my money that is up. Glori has $50 in it. If he wants to leave that there, all right. On account of the trouble I have had over the death of Con Riordan, I have been compelled to ask Mr. Corbett to grant me a little more time, and he has done so. My money will be forthcoming, and Glori will have nothing to do with it."

INTER-STATE PROSPECTS.

Manager White Feels Rather Blue-Day-ton Has Flickered. The future of the Inter-state Base Ball Association recently organized at Steubenville, and of which Wheeling is a member, seems to be obscured be hind the clouds at present. News was received here yesterday to the effect that M. D. McKean, the Clevelander who was to take hold in the Gem City, had given up the attempt for the reason that he was unable to secure the necessary encouragement from the owners of the park and street railway company. This is a bad blow to the association us Dayton was counted upon as one of the best cities on the circuit.
